

COOKIE CONFUSION

Rocky and his friends couldn't wait to try out a cookie recipe they saw _____ whip up on the reality TV show "_____ Chef."

(celebrity) (adjective)

First, they preheated the _____ to _____°F! Then in a (noun) (large number)

big _____, they cracked a dozen _____, poured in (noun) (food, plural)

one cup of _____, stirred in three _____ of cream, (liquid) (noun, plural)

and added one stick of _____. Using a(n) _____, they (gooey substance) (noun)

_____ all the ingredients together. They took turns rolling the (past-tense verb)

dough flat, then cut out the cookies with _____-shaped cookie (animal)

cutters. They put the cookies in the oven for _____ minutes, (number)

then let them _____ until they were _____. Everything (verb) (adjective)

smelled so _____! _____ wanted to taste them first (adverb) (relative's name)

and took a bite. "_____!" _____ the (exclamation) (same relative's name) (past-tense verb)

cookie to the floor so hard it put a(n) _____ hole in the (adjective)

_____. The cookies were hard as _____! Turns (part of a house) (noun, plural)

out they had forgotten to add the most important ingredient:

two _____ of chopped _____. Even though (noun, plural) (food, plural)

the recipe was a flop, Rocky and his friends had fun baking!

